CHIPS.

WHAT has become of Curley Cannon, our Delegate? Has he fluked before that effulgent streak of sunshine, surnamed Col. Ike Trumbo?

TOM REED has lost his moustache. If his strength lies in his hair, like Samson's of old, his spinal cord will be like an empty sausage at this session, as he is also bald-headed.

"The world is my country, and to do good is my religion."

Thomas Paine.

A LOT of Republicans in the House embraced an opportunity to perform the "fire-fly" act, last Tuesday, by introducing a resolution looking to the impeachment of Minister Bayard. It was a failure, but it afforded a chance to display a little grandstand jingoism.

THE g. o. p. fellows have been in a stew about the location of their national convention. We think the most appropriate place would be the Great Mammoth Cave of Kentucky. It is said that even the fish there are blind, and anyone who would vote that ticket now may have eyes but they cannot see.

THE long-legged county attorney, and his three pigeonstools, known as county selectmen, are liable to feel the cold hand of the law before many moons. This crowd have been raising a big cloud of dust, in order to hide their own trail of "mileage," and pleasure trips to Chicago.

FOR clothing, furnishing goods, hats and caps, visit O'Reilly's, 210 Main Street.

CONGRESSIONAL news has been rather tame thus far. It is probable that after the holidays, the animals will be a little more active. The Republicans have such an overwhelming majority, that there is likely to be a row in their own camp. One thing is certain, that no legislation will be passed in the line of free coinage. The people can expect no relief from the hands of the "gold bug" aggregation. Senator Chandler's bill for the free coinage of silver, is a fair sample of the burlesque manner with which the subject will be treated. If the people ask bread, they will be given a stone.

For all kinds of Christmas presents, such as silverware, jewelry, fancy goods, and toys, in great variety at the lowest prices, visit the Golden Rule Bazaar, 227, and its Branch, 43 Main Street.

JOHN SHERMAN's book should bear the title of "What I know about Republican Leaders." He tells a few party secrets, and spares neither the living nor the dead. The book had such a chilling effect on some of the former class, that they have been laid up with severe colds ever since. We doubt if even the half has yet been told; but enough has been said to show that the Senator is not suffering from a very high temperature of love for some of the g. o. p. idols.

THE large increase in immigration during the past six months is worthy of Congressional attention. It is a subject that needs legislation promptly and to the point. Persons from the Old World with bleached characters and un-American instincts should be received upon our shores with caution. Protecting the money power with high-tariff laws and leaving our labor exposed to the influx of cheap laborers and paupers, will bring us to a condition of European vassalage. Let us protect our own land from this swarm of pests before it is too late.

SEE HOW WE GROW.

THE editor of the BROAD AX enjoyed a pleasant trip over the range to Park City last week. We found this mining metropolis lively and busy, and we also found a nice lot of new subscribers and friends of the BROAD AX. The following names were added to our Park City list:

John W. Girger, Shields Bros., G. W. Groo, R. V. Ivory, F. J. McLaughlin, R. C. Cordell, P. M., James Sweeney, John Paradise, John McDonald, Salon Spiro, D. Fisher.

A NUMBER of the "small fry," variety of newspapers in Utah are publishing a lot of readymade commendations of Isaac Trumbo for U. S. Senator. This streak of so-called sunshine, is only a phosphorescent vapor, artificially produced, and when examined under the sunlight of common sense, he will prove to be nothing more than a political glowworm. This attempt to manufacture public opinion, and boom "Ikey," for senator, is the height of impudence. We concede to the Republicans the two senators from Utah; but we trust they will not pass by the many talented and brainy men of that party, and send to Washington a California representative of the Southern Pacific Railroad, who would be but a mental nudity in comparison with a dozen bright men of Utah, who would accept the position. All this warmed over, high-sounding praise by Colonel Isaac Trumbo, on Col. Isaac Trumbo, ought to disgust the whole people and especially the members of the legislature, upon whom the responsibility of electing a senator rests.
